

Internship Program - Albuquerque

The United States Marshals Service, District of New Mexico, will accept applications for the Fall 2012 internship program in Albuquerque from April 1st through May 11th, 2012. The internship provides students interested in federal law enforcement an opportunity to obtain educational work experience and an understanding of the role of the U.S. Marshals Service in the justice system. Program areas include: Investigative & Fugitive Operations, Court Security, Judicial Security, Prisoner Operations, Administrative Services, and Agency Management.

Qualifications:

- Enrolled in an accredited college or university.
- Pursuing an undergraduate or graduate degree; preferred degree programs are criminal justice, criminology, political science, psychology, public administration, sociology, and social science. Additional degree programs will be considered on a case-by-case basis.
- Cumulative overall GPA of 2.75, GPA in major of 3.0.
- At least a second semester sophomore at the time of application.
- Pass a structured interview, background investigation, and drug test.

To apply, submit the following documents: a current resume including all employment from the last five years and three personal references; a cover letter describing future career goals and interest in the U.S. Marshals Service; a letter of recommendation from a professor; and an unofficial academic transcript. The application may be submitted between April 1st and May 11th, 2012, in person or via mail to the USMS Internship Program, 333 Lomas Blvd NW, Suite 180, Albuquerque, NM, 87102. Candidates must be available for an interview in Albuquerque.

The U.S. Marshals Service internship is a voluntary, unpaid program, designed to be flexible to work around existing employment and academic commitments. Interns are required to work at least eight hours per week. It is the student's responsibility to complete all necessary procedures for receiving university or college credit for the internship.

Interns cannot directly participate in law enforcement activities.

Point of Contact:

Intern Liaison/Recruiter: Deputy U.S. Marshal Mitch Varley, 505.938.7545, mitch.varley@usdoj.gov.

Visit the U.S. Marshals Service's website at www.usmarshals.gov for general agency information.